4 Organisations that help Dutch nationals in prison abroad

The Dutch government works with organisations that help Dutch nationals who are in prison abroad. These organisations are listed below. Find out how these organisations can help you by reading the enclosed information.

a. International Office of the Dutch Probation Service

In many countries the International Office works with a Dutch-speaking volunteer who will visit you in prison. The volunteer will send a report of the visit to the International Office in the Netherlands.

b. Epafra Foundation

The Epafra Foundation has volunteers in many countries that can visit you to provide spiritual support.

c. Dutch & Detained

Dutch & Detained provides additional legal assistance. They advise Dutch nationals in prison abroad and their contact persons in the Netherlands. Your information pack contains the form for prisoners in the country where you are detained.
